

Global X Management Company (Europe) Limited

No Consideration of Adverse Impacts of Investment Decisions on Sustainability Factors.

Global X Management Company (Europe) Limited (the “Company”) does not currently consider principal adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors at an entity level as described in Article 4(1) of Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on sustainability- related disclosures in the financial services sector (“SFDR”). Principal adverse impacts are the impacts of investment decisions and advice with the most significant negative impacts on sustainability factors which includes environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.

The Company, in accordance with Article 4 (1) (b) of SFDR, does not currently consider the principal adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors due to the nature and scale of its activities and the range of financial products it makes available. This approach is considered by the Company to be transparent and pragmatic.

While the Company does not currently consider the principal adverse impacts of investment decisions, the Company reconsiders its position on an annual basis with reference to market developments. The Company may, where relevant to an investment strategy or product, choose to consider to measure the adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors of that product and provide reporting to investors in respect of same.
